Dear Sir,

Against this background, we request you to accord permission for III B.Tech- EEE students of approximately 58 in number along with 3 faculty members to your grid on 18.03.2023. Our Faculty members will accompany the students and they will come in batches without causing disturbance to your grid functioning. A line of response in this regard is highly appreciated.

IMPACT ANALYSIS

ABOUT EXHIBITION

The ISRO exhibition, inaugurated by the Honourable Governor of Andhra Pradesh, Shri Biswabhusan Harichandan, showcased prototypes of satellites/vehicles with a detailed description on their conception, manufacturing and working principles. Exhaustive exhibition panels displayed information on breakthrough space ventures including the Gaganyaan Mission, Mars Orbiter Mission and many others. Chanda, a 9th grader from DPS, commented that she was ecstatic to visit the exhibition and the campus. The young space enthusiast utilised this opportunity to learn about the different models and their application and vocalised her desire to become the next Kalpana Chawala. Demonstration models illustrating novel nuclear tech and atomic models were the highlights of the DAE exhibition. Followed by the inauguration, the exhibited prototypes were briefly explained by Jalaja Madan Mohan, Head Technical Co-ordinator & Public Awareness Section, IGCAR, DAE to the Honourable Governor and other dignitaries visiting the exhibition.

IMPACT ANALYSIS

The Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) and the Department of Atomic Energy (DAE) have made significant strides in advancing India's capabilities in space exploration and nuclear technology, respectively. ISRO has achieved notable milestones, including successful satellite launches, interplanetary missions, and the development of indigenous satellite technologies. The organization's commitment to cost-effective innovation has garnered global recognition, making India a competitive player in the international space community. On the other hand, DAE has contributed substantially to India's nuclear energy sector, managing a diverse portfolio of activities encompassing nuclear power generation, research reactors, and nuclear applications. The DAE's emphasis on research and development has led to advancements in nuclear technology, safety protocols, and strategic applications. Both organizations continuously strive for excellence, contributing significantly to scientific knowledge, technological innovation, and the nation's overall progress in space and nuclear domains.

OUTCOME:

The exhibition by ISRO and DAE provided students with a firsthand glimpse into cutting-edge space exploration and nuclear technologies, inspiring curiosity and fostering interest in STEM fields. It offered valuable insights, encouraging future generations to contribute to India's scientific and technological advancements.
