SRKIT NSS Unit of our college is celebrated “Janjatiya Gaurav Divas is celebrated on November 15th every year to honor the contributions of India's tribal communities. The day commemorates the birth anniversary of Birsa Munda, a tribal leader and freedom fighter who led the Ulgulan (Revolution) against British rule in the late 19th century.

The day recognizes the sacrifices of tribal freedom fighters and their efforts to preserve cultural heritage and promote Indian values. The Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports organizes a foot march to commemorate tribal heritage, promote inclusivity, and raise awareness about government schemes. The day was first celebrated in 2021 as part of the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, which celebrated 75 years of India's independence. In this programme Nss po Mr.B.chinni and NSS Volunteers participated.
